“Jesus knew that the Father had given everything into His hands, that He had come from God, and that He was going back to God. So He got up from supper, laid aside His robe, took a towel, and tied it around Himself. Next, He poured water into a basin and began to wash His disciples’ feet and to dry them with the towel tied around Him” (John 13:3-5).

The BEGINNING

Read these helpful tips before you begin:

- Make sure your personal relationship with God is right. Spend some personal time in prayer before you begin. Confess sin and ask God to prepare your heart to intercede for others.
- Feel free to pray both aloud and silently. Spend some time walking and praying by yourself, but also have designated meeting locations or times when you gather with others to pray corporately.
- Use prayer guides, hymns or praise songs, and Scripture as you walk your location. Be sensitive to the Holy Spirit’s leading. He may prompt you to spend more time in a particular location, claim a promise of scripture, or speak to someone who has crossed your path.

The WORD

“The Lord is near all who call out to Him, all who call out to Him with integrity” (Psalm 145:18).

“Will not God grant justice to His elect who cry out to Him day and night? Will He delay to help them? I tell you that He will swiftly grant them justice” (Luke 18:7-8a).

“In the same way the Spirit also joins to help in our weakness, because we do not know what to pray for as we should, but the Spirit Himself intercedes for us with unspoken groanings. And He who searches the hearts knows the Spirit’s mindset, because He intercedes for the saints according to the will of God” (Romans 8:26 -27).

“Now this is the confidence we have before Him: Whenever we ask anything according to His will, He hears us. And if we know that He hears whatever we ask, we know that we have what we have asked Him for” (1 John 5:14 -15 14).

“Again, I assure you: If two of you on earth agree about any matter that you pray for, it will be done for you by My Father in heaven. For where two or three are gathered together in My name, I am there among them” (Matthew 18:19 -20 19).

“The Lord is far from the wicked, but He hears the prayer of the righteous” (Proverbs 15:29)
